

Fees for Green Seal Certification under GS-35 Standard for Foodservice Packaging

Green Seal's fees are based on the type of product under review (original product, private label, similar or nearly identical product), number of products submitted for certification and the company's total annual revenue. The fees reflect the basic cost of evaluating, certifying, and monitoring products under a contractual application and license agreement with Green Seal, Inc. As a 501(c)(3) non-profit organization, Green Seal uses the revenue from fees to help us realize our mission to create a more sustainable world.

Evaluation for Certification

Each product is evaluated to verify that it meets the applicable standard. The full evaluation fee is due at the time of application. The evaluation fee covers the evaluation of each product's components, and materials and literature that include reference to Green Seal. Out-of-pocket costs, such as costs for travel for an on-site audit or for any necessary product tests, are not included in the evaluation fee.

Compliance Monitoring

Once a product is certified, periodic compliance monitoring is conducted to ensure that the requirements for certification are still being met. Monitoring involves a review of the product and ancillary materials similar to the initial certification evaluation. Compliance monitoring fees include the review, and the 12-month license to use the Green Seal Mark, and are due annually on or before the anniversary of certification.

Evaluation Fees for Original Products

A “Single Product” is one formulation or configuration based on unique attributes, and “Multiple Products” are distinctly different from each other. All Multiple Products must be submitted at the same time, but may be under two or more standards. Products are not defined by brand name or package size and may encompass more than one SKU. We are frequently able to combine products under one product fee. Contact us for more information.
