

Environmental Standard for Restaurants and Food Services (GS-46) Certification Fee Schedule

Effective April 30, 2009

Green Seal's fees are based on the annual revenue of the restaurant or food service operation and other factors. An evaluation is necessary to verify that your restaurant or food service operation meets the standard. Also included is a review of labeling and any other marketing or promotional materials that feature the Green Seal Certification Mark. Monitoring is done periodically to ensure continued compliance with the standard. The monitoring fee begins to accrue from the date of certification and is due no later than the anniversary date of certification. Restaurants and Food Services will have three years from the date of Bronze certification to progress to Silver. Failure to progress to Silver in the timeframe specified will result in loss of certification. Out-of-pocket costs for the audit, such as for travel, are in addition to these fees.

The fee schedule below reflects the basic cost of certifying restaurants or food service operations under a contractual application and license agreement with Green Seal, Inc.
